V. HEARING OF PERSONS DESIRING TO ADDRESS THE COMMISSION OR TO PRESENT PETITIONS

Tammy Dhanota, SEIU, addressed the Commission to place on record, SEIU objects to the SCCOE action to remove the Mental Health Wellness Specialists from SEIU and place in ACE, without SEIU approval. Ms. Dhanota provided additional reasons how this action will harm the employees in the classification. Ms. Dhanota stated SEIU will be meeting with legal counsel to file an unfair labor practice; SEIU hopes the SCCOE can resolve it amicably and not take this harmful action. Larry Oshodi, Assistant Superintendent – Personnel Services, responded this action was not the decision of the County Office, but the retirement systems. Mr. Oshodi shared the timeline of notification to SEIU and stated that additional meetings/updates had taken place.

President Spector asked, as the Commission approved the position last year, what has changed? Mr. Oshodi stated STRS identified the fact that the Mental Health Wellness Specialist special functions in the job description require a PPS credential; therefore, becomes a credible STRS position.
