

Jon R. Gundry, County Superintendent of Schools

CALLING ARTISTS AND JOURNALISTS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE 2016 SANTA CLARA COUNTY MOCK TRIALS!

1st Place: Camille K., Los Angeles County

The 2016 Mock Trials offer a unique opportunity for students to engage their artistic skills in the authentic and exciting environment of a criminal trial proceeding.

Mock Trial invites students to compete as courtroom journalists and artists. As many students who want to participate at the county level can be part of the competition! They can attend and submit work from any, or all, of the first four nights of the competition.

Santa Clara County can send up to two (2) artists and two (2) journalists to the state finals.

Want more information? We can come to your school to talk with teachers and/or students!

Mock Trial	Dates
February 2, 2016	February 9, 2016
February 4, 2016	February 11, 2016
County Awards: March 10, 2016

Mock Trial Website

REGISTRATION: Register at <http://tinyurl.com/MTCRegistration>. The registration deadline is January 22, 2016. There is no charge for February tournament (fee waived). Please visit our website (<http://goo.gl/p2LIto>). For additional questions, contact Dr. Christina Arpante, Coordinator for the Santa Clara County Mock Trials, at AcademicEvents@sccoe.org.