

Mock Trial Journalist Contest Official Rules

All contestants affiliated with a Mock Trial team must be enrolled at the team's school and be included in the team's roster. Independent contestants must register separately with the SCCOE.

All participants must sign a permission slip form authorizing the publication or reprinting of their Journalism Contest submissions for educational purposes. No financial compensation will be awarded.

Contestants affiliated with a team may only watch and report on their team's trials. Independent contestants will be assigned to a team.

Contestants can watch and write article based on any of the first four rounds, but only one