SANTA CLARA COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION

CLASS TITLE: BEHAVIORAL SUPPORT – SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGIST/THERAPIST

BASIC FUNCTION:

REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES:

ESSENTIAL DUTIES:

monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within Constitutions of the special students in th
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support—School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
monitors the Santa Clara County Office of Education's behavioral curriculum and instructional program to ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within
ensure that all services respond to the needs of students in relation to their behavior and social skills. The Behavioral Support–School Psychologist/Therapist will be assigned to areas of specialized expertise within

